

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS

FOR THE TENTH CIRCUIT

March 16, 2020

Christopher M. Wolpert
Clerk of Court

In re: Restrictions on Public Access to the Byron White United States
Courthouse and Temporary Suspension of Paper Copy Requirements

No. 95-1

GENERAL ORDER
FILED March 16, 2020

Before TYMKOVICH, Chief Circuit Judge.

Due to the Coronavirus/COVID-19 pandemic, the Byron White United States Courthouse (“Courthouse”) is closed to the public effective March 17, 2020. Until further notice, access to the Courthouse is restricted to judges, court staff, court security officers, and service providers with official business with the court (e.g., the United States Postal Service, and contractors working on pending projects) subject to the courthouse access restrictions that took effect on March 13, 2020.

Until further notice, all filings should be made electronically or via mail. Questions, concerns, or requests for accommodation should be directed to the Clerk’s Office (Clerk@ca10.uscourts.gov | (303) 844-3157).

In addition, the requirement for parties to submit paper copies of briefs, appendices, and petitions for rehearing en banc is temporarily suspended until further notice. The paper-copy requirement will be reinstituted at a later date. At that time, parties may be required to submit paper copies of briefs, appendices and petitions for rehearing en banc filed during the period of suspension.
